

Solar-Powered Federation of Korean Industries Tower Boasts One of the World's Most Efficient Facades

Written by Vojtěch Dvořák

Saturday, 25 January 2014 00:19

The solar-powered Federation of Korean Industries Tower is now complete in Seoul – and it has one of the world's most efficient solar facades.

Adrian Smith + Gordon Architecture \(AS+GG\)

designed the 240 meter high-rise with a self-regulating external skin that not only collects energy through photovoltaic panels, but also reduces internal heating and cooling loads.

Solar-Powered Federation of Korean Industries Tower Boasts One of the World's Most Efficient Facades

Written by Vojtěch Dvořák

Saturday, 25 January 2014 00:19

[Read the full story of South Korea's Federation of Korean Industries Tower Boasts One of the World's Most Efficient Facades, by Vojtěch Dvořák, on \[BuildingGreen.com\]\(#\), the leading online publication for green building professionals.](#)